Rev. G. W. Broome Pays Tribute to Mothers of Sturdy Copperdom Sons

"Men with good mothers have never been given to the disorders of the past, and never will participate in any in the future. Yea, they have been the saviors of the copper country, and all such sons always will be on the right side of every question."—Rev. G. W. Broome, pastor of First Baptist

In his sermon last evening on mbject, "Our Mother," Rev. George W. Broome, pastor of the First Baptist church, paid a tribute to motherhood generally, and particularly the mothers of the sturdy sons of the copper country who took such a determined stand for law and order during the long industrial struggle in this district, Mr. Broome's discourse was appropriate to "Mother's Day," and it closely held the attention of a large congrega tion. He spoke as follows:

If the world was lost thru a woman she will be a factor in saving it. She holds future society in her hands; holds the key to each soul in her household and she stamps each character with her own. It has been said Like mother, like son." Of the sixty-

For she said: "What could! be better than that the boys close their earthly life while showing such levotion to their mother and reverence to the gods." And so the devoted God's altar and in harmony with the lads died and left behind them for all boys to see, a last act of tender love to their mother.

this story. How often our Christian boys forget the honor due their moth er: she has to trudge to church alone and many times has to stay away from the place dearest to her heart to satisfy the temporal desires of her boys a ome and miss the services that are foud to her heart. Boys we had better disappoint ourselves rather than trovble mother and let her have one disappointment on our account.

There is nothing more beautiful in the life of our Lord Jesus, the Son of God, who went down to Nazareth and was subject to his mother and Joseph closing hour of his life he showed forth the true spirit of all loy al sons by showing his tender sympathy and making provision for her re clining years with the beloved Apostle

Are we Christian boys?

It is one of the deepest disgraces that can come to any child that they are thoughtless of their mother's comfort, or ashamed to let it be known "that they think the world of their mothers."

There is a time when mother is more than all else in our lives. Mother, name is our childhood "talisman." She s our refuge and safeguard and first in our affection. She watches our helpless infancy, anticipates every childfish feat, humors every childish ancy, smooths all transient sorrows. sings sweet lullabys, and when pain and sickness prays upon us there i medicine in her kiss and healing i COLUMBIA LAUNDRY &

Can we pay what we owe to or precious mothers? When we left home it was mother who gave the last fare well; it was mother who said "Ms prayers will follow you until you find "hrist as your savior;" and night after night her pillow was wet with tears that we knew nothing of until be faith was rewarded.

May God help us to be kind to thear mothers while we have them. It is not long from childhood to youth and youth to manhood and womanhood and the time is short at the longest to show them our appreciation and we think you will have to leave earth and its scenes to find such company as these Godly mothers make. Let us then, enjoy their blessed present while we can, and then follow them from earth to heaven by confessing their Christ before men who has been mother's savier from sin, guide in her path of life and comfort when all else miled. This would make her heart re-oice and show her your true love. May we add the words of Macauly: Children look on those eyes, listen to that dear voice, notice the feeling in a the most of it, while you have the most precious of all earthly gifts, A loving mother."
